

Encore Chorale

at Anne Arundel
Community College

Retired? What are you doing for an encore?

Spend your Monday afternoons singing!

If you've spent your life singing, or sang at some time in your life and want to return to singing, join other music enthusiasts for weekly rehearsals of fun and challenging music with professional conductor Jeanne Kelly.

Designed for adults 55 years and above, this class is instructive as well as enjoyable. Learn proper breathing techniques and how to improve your voice through correct tone production as Kelly guides participants through weekly rehearsals in four-part singing. The season will conclude with a performance with other Encore Chorales. Be a part of a true harmonic convergence – if you can talk, you can sing! Singers may be seated for rehearsals and performances. Rehearsal CDs are available.

Kelly is the former director of the Levine School of Music, Arlington campus and was conductor of the Georgetown University Concert Choir and music director of the U.S. Naval Academy Women's Glee Club. She founded Encore Creativity for Older Adults, a nonprofit organization. There are 15 Encore Chorales and five Encore ROCKS Rock N' Roll choruses in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.
